

What is that?! Mad Lib

(Person's name) and I were playing (game) on the Wii in the living room when suddenly Cindy burst in. "Come outside! There's something (adjective)!" We put down our Wii remotes and headed toward the door only to find a (animal) sitting in the center of the LES parking lot.

"(Exclamation)!" I cried out. It didn't look hurt. Where did it come from?

Just then, Nancy's (vehicle) pulled up along the sidewalk as we all were standing outside (verb) -ing at the incredible sight. When she saw the animal she (verb) -ed. The animal looked at Nancy, and all of a sudden began to walk off down the road toward (place in Millis). We never did see that (same animal from before) again, but everyone at LES can all agree. It was the most (adjective) day of their life!
